Debra F. Bell

Debra is owner of P3 Coaching & Consulting. Debra joined Houston Baptist University in the Office of Career & Calling as the Coordinator for Student WorkStudy and Internships. Prior to working at HBU, Debra served as a Career Coach for Lee Hecht Harrison, Inc., a global outplacement firm where she assisted Executives and Professionals with Career Transition Services. She is a Professional Coach, Speaker, and Trainer, certified through John Maxwell Team. Debra is also a Certified Resume Writer through the Professional Association of Resume Writers and Career Coaches.

Debra has worked in both the public and private sectors of the marketplace and brings a diverse skillset. Having worked in Career Transition since 2000 she brings a strong background in Career Coaching, Strategic Planning, Leadership Development, and Project Management. Debra facilitated Career Services Workshop with subject matter that included resume writing, interviewing, networking, communication strategy on company sites like GE Company, Hewlett Packard, Invesco, BP, Wells Fargo Bank, FMC Technologies, Nexus, and Novartis Pharmaceuticals. Debra has served on staff at two local churches, first, The Church Without Walls (Brookhollow Baptist Church), as a Staff Minister and Director of New Members Programs where Debra managed, coached, and trained over 200 volunteers in five areas of ministry across three campus locations. At Kainos Community Church Debra assumed the role of Executive Minister over Administration and Ministry Development. In this assignment Debra facilitated administrative and departmental ministry activity, resulting in 25% higher involvement in church wide initiatives.

Debra has a Master of Divinity Degree from Houston Graduate School of Theology, a BS Degree from the University of Houston and is currently working on a MA Degree in Counseling. She has three adult children and three grandchildren.